On the alleged mafia threat that was reported to me and about which Garrison is less than honest in his book which makes no mention of the threat, here is the first page of the Garrison office transcript of my taped conversation with Harv Morgan and the phone message slip by Garrison's switchboard operator reflecting that the same day I spoke to the New Orleans FBI. This is the message Hood left for me.